MOUNTAINS AS THEY SHOULD BE.

When you go to the mountains, you want to get off the beaten path. Where adventure awaits every season. Where life is simpler yet more fulfilling. Where you can find something new—and find your peak self.

That's exactly what we found in the Idaho West. And that's why we're here.

We built Tamarack Resort where nature told us to... At the intersection of the mountains, meadows, and lake.

Where you can ski pristine slopes or boat on tranquil waters. Where you can start a new après tradition at Sugarloaf Creamery or play pickleball with new friends. Where we celebrate weddings, weekend getaways, and... everything else. It's more than just a resort or a place you visit. It's a second home. It's a community. It's where memories are made.

Tamarack is all in one and always open. Uncrowded, unspoiled, and unpretentious. With world-class amenities and rugged natural beauty. If you could move mountains, you'd move them here.

Welcome to Tamarack Resort.
