"Being recognized by the readers of Condé Nast Traveler as one of the top ski resorts in the country is an incredible honor for Tamarack," said Scott Turlington, President of Tamarack Resort. "This recognition is especially meaningful because it comes directly from travelers who experienced the mountain and our community firsthand. Our team has worked tremendously hard to continue elevating the guest experience, and we're excited to build on that momentum as we head into another winter season."

The award also follows a year of national recognition and continued investment across Tamarack's four-season resort experience. Tamarack was named the No. 1 Resort in the West in Travel + Leisure's 2026 World's Best Awards, while Osprey Meadows Golf Course was ranked the No. 1 public-access golf course in Idaho by Golfweek for 2026. The new Tamarack Resort Marina also debuted on Lake Cascade this summer with 100 boat slips and a fuel dock.
